

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

ARCHIBALD,
64TH LORD BISHOP OF EXETER,
THIS ATTEMPT TO RESTORE,
AS FAR AS IS NOW POSSIBLE,
SOME OF THE LOST PARISH-REGISTERS OF HIS DIOCESE
IS,
BY HIS KIND PERMISSION,
MOST RESPECTFULLY DEDICATED.

INTRODUCTORY NOTE.

PARISH-REGISTERS are generally considered to have been first established in England in September, 1538, by Thomas Cromwell, although several have entries of earlier date. In 1598 Convocation (which commenced its sittings on 25 October, 1597) ordered that all the entries which had been made during the reign of Queen Elizabeth in the then existing paper registers should be transcribed into new parchment books, and, also, that in future, within a month after Easter in every year, a copy of the preceding year's entries should be sent to the Bishop's Registry. By No. 70 of the Canons of 1603 that Order was re-affirmed, except (1) that all the entries "since the time that the law was first made in that behalf, so far as the ancient books thereof can be procured, but especially since the beginning of the reign of the late Queen," were to be re-written in the new register-books, and (2) that 25 March was substituted for Easter; and the authority of this Canon remained unimpaired (except from January 1645, to 1660) until the Registration Act of 1812 (52 George III, c. 146).

The copies that, in accordance with the above Orders, were sent to the Diocesan Registries afterwards became known as "Bishops' Transcripts," and those for the County of Devon that exist have been kept for very many years in the Cathedral at Exeter, in the Episcopal Muniment-Room over St. James's Chapel. In 1901 the Transcripts of pre-Restoration date were arranged in alphabetical and yearly order by the present writer and Mr. W. H. Bowers, of the Diocesan Registry; but none having entries of earlier date than 1506 was found, although in a few dioceses they do go back somewhat further. In January, 1904, the writer, with the permission of the then Registrar of the Diocese of Exeter, the late Arthur Burch, Esq., wrote a letter to the Editor of the "Devon and Exeter Gazette" (G. F. Gratwicke, Esq.) on the subject of the Transcripts, and the desirability of printing those of lost registers. The letter was very kindly inserted, although it was of somewhat unusual length, and an editorial note was added; correspondence on the matter followed, and the Sub-Dean took the question up and invited subscriptions. The project of printing the lost-register transcripts also received the warm approval of Prebendary Hingston-Randolph, the Editor of the "Registers of the Bishops of Exeter," and of the Council of the Devonshire Association; and the Revd. J. F. Chanter, Rector of Parracombe, North Devon, a member of that Council, had copies made of those of the Rural-Deaneries of Barnstaple and Shirwell. Subsequently, sufficient subscriptions to defray the cost of the first volume having been received, the work was begun. Since then a great many fragments, from which the name of the parish has disappeared, have been identified by the writer, either by means of the signature of the Minister where that remains (and to do this a list had, first, to be made of all the Incumbents and Curates of the County, with their respective parishes, from 1596 to 1645); or by the places or persons mentioned in them; or by the handwriting; or by collating the burial entries with the entries for the same year in the calendars of the Wills and Administration papers preserved at the Exeter Probate Registry; and it is this identification which has caused the "Addenda" in this volume.

The abstracts have been most carefully made by Mr. Bowers on the following plan,—(1) the names of persons and places, and any interesting entries or notes, are given in full and, except where abbreviations have been extended or Latin translated into English, in the spelling of the MS.; (2) signatures in English are given as in the MS., but Latinized names have been rendered into English; and (3) the entries are given in the order of the MS., even where that seems to be wrong.

A list follows of the abbreviations which will be used to save space; and, to the like end, instead of including a separate index in each volume, it is proposed to provide one General Index at the end of the Work, together with a brief account of Parish-Registers and Transcripts from 1538 to 1660.

Ashbury.

[The Parish Registers, which, according to the Return made to the House of Commons in 1833, began at 1615, were, unfortunately, at Ashbury House (the residence of the late Ven. Henry Woolcombe, Archdeacon of Barnstaple) when it was destroyed by fire on 18 and 19 August, 1877, and the Marriage Register was almost entirely consumed, while the Registers of Baptisms and Burials were so much injured that what remains of them crumbles on being touched. Copies, however, of the entries which could be read were made by the late Mr. Henry Woolcombe, the eldest son of Archdeacon Woolcombe, and the Rev. Thomas England, the then Rector, and his son, and are as follows:—Baptisms from 1616 to 1800 and Burials from 1683 to 1802 (on separate sheets), and Baptisms from 1813 to 1877 and Burials from 1816 to 1877 (in the existing Registers).]

[The Parish Registers begin at 1552 for Burials, and 1553 for Baptisms and Marriages, but vol. 1 ends at August, 1626, for Burials; 10 January, 1659-60, for Baptisms; and 17 January, 1664-5, for Marriages; while there is a gap in the Burials, 1553-5, and the entries of four years' Baptisms, viz., 1637, 1642, 1655, and 1656, are partly destroyed. Vol. 2 covers the period 1703-39, and vols. 3 (Baptisms and Burials) and 4 (Marriages) begin at 1772, and 1773, respectively. At the commencement of vol. 3 there is a memorandum that on 20 February, 1772, the Registers were accidentally destroyed by fire, but that "the names were recovered out of the burnt scraps and pieces"; all that was copied, however, appears to have been entries of Baptisms 1750-71, and these are not, apparently, complete.]

From 1607 to 1660 the Registers seem to be complete.]

¹ The Transcripts for 1605 and 1606 are written on one sheet of paper, but each set of entries is headed with its proper date, and the two sets are further divided by a line. The entries for each year are not, however, separated into their three classes, and when this was done there was shewn, as will be seen, a peculiar state of things, viz., that, with the exception of the burial on 19 January, the entries for 1605 are all within the first half of the year, and that, except the burial of 17 June, the entries for 1606 are all within the second half of the year. It is, of course, very improbable that in this large parish there should have been no Baptisms or Marriages, and only two Burials, during a whole year, but although the Churchwardens' Accounts begin at 1601 they, as well as the Registers, throw no light on the matter, and, so far as the present Rector is aware, there is no tradition as to the Church having been closed for repair about that time.

Bovey Tracy.

[The Parish Registers begin, now, at 1653 for Burials, 1654 for Marriages, and 1659 for Baptisms, but according to Oliver's "Eccl. Antiquities," edition of 1840, they then began as follows:—"Baptisms with the first week of 1538, Burials from November of that year, and Marriages from 27 April, 1539"; and in the same edition there is a note that "The Registers of Bovey Tracy throw much light on the Pedigree of the Southcott Family." In support of these statements, there are in Vivian's "Visitations of Devon," completed 1895, references to thirty-nine separate years between 1538 and 1644 in connection with the genealogy of the above family, and, as it is believed that the late Lt.-Col. Vivian did not commence collecting material for his works until about 1870, and the publication of his "Visitations of Cornwall" preceded that of Devon by several years, it would seem clear that it was only within the quarter of a century preceding the institution of the present Vicar in 1897 that the early Registers disappeared. On the other hand, it was stated in the Return made to the House of Commons in 1833 that the Registers commenced at 1675 (Baptisms) and 1676 (Marriages and Burials), but, whether these dates were then correct or not, there is now a gap in the Marriages between 1675 and 1755, the book for that period having, apparently, been also lost.]

Bovey Tracy.

In 1902 the late Revd. W. B. V. Stead, who was then the Vicar, informed the Diocesan Records and Parish Registers Committee of the Exeter Diocesan Conference that the earliest register book of this parish began as stated at the commencement of the note on p. 122. Relying on this information, abstracts of seven out of eight pre-Restoration transcripts had been made and set up in type, when, in 1906, the Editors happened to observe that an earlier register was mentioned and quoted from in both the Works referred to on the above page. They immediately wrote to Mr. Stead, and he replied, in various communications, as follows,—“The Bovey Tracy Registers have been lost up to 1654, or rather 1646.” “I have searched the parish chest too carefully, and alas! there was nothing but this dilapidated volume, which has been bound. Col. Vivian must be mistaken, and I fancy Oliver allowed his fancy to play.” “I am sorry to say I can find no trace of the earlier parts of the registers of this parish; they seem to have vanished, and no old official can tell me anything.” The Editors then drew up the note on p. 122, and (Mr. Stead having approved of its substance thus,—“I return the paper, which seems to me to be correct as to dates; I can get no tidings of the lost registers.”) that and the seven abstracts were printed; and, afterwards, the other transcript having been found an abstract of that was also printed. In January, 1909, just as this volume was about to be issued to the subscribers, the Editors were greatly astonished to learn, from a casual communication made to them by the Ven. H. B. Hyde (who had become the Vicar on 24 April, 1908) that the above information of the late Mr. Stead was strangely mistaken, the pre-Commonwealth register being still in the church, in an unusually good state of preservation, and in its original covers; but they conclude, from certain facts stated to them, that, in 1902, Mr. Stead was unaware of its existence, and that, although he may have afterwards known of it, failing health, and consequent weakness of sight and memory, caused his replies to their questions in 1906. The Editors are now informed that this register clearly continues without a break from Michaelmas, 1538, for Baptisms, 19 February, 1538-9, for Burials, and 27 April, 1539, for Marriages,¹ until 1648-9² for Marriages, and 1652-3² for Baptisms and Burials, so that no abstracts of transcripts of this parish ought to be included in this volume, and they exceedingly regret that they should be obliged to issue to their subscribers 18 pp. of entries, which are also to be found (presumably) in an extant register. At the same time they desire to express their thanks to the present Vicar of Bovey Tracy for his very kind readiness to help them, so far as he could, out of the difficulty in which they were placed by waiving the objections, which he might well have made, to the publication of the above-mentioned eight abstracts. With respect to the other registers, the Editors now understand (1) that the second book commences at the dates stated in the first two lines of the note on p. 122, but that until the Restoration there were no entries of baptisms, births being registered instead; (2) that the dates given in the Return to the House of Commons in 1833, as those of the commencement of the registers, are really those of the beginning of the third book; and (3) that, while there are several short gaps in the books after 1660, there is no such break in the entries of marriages as inadvertently stated by Mr. Stead, and mentioned on p. 122, the actual gaps in those entries being 1740-5, 1748, and 1750-3.

¹ There are also two entries of marriages in November, 1538, written immediately before the first burial entry. ² After these dates there are a few odd entries.

Bradford.

[The Parish Registers begin at 27 January, 1553-4, for Marriages, 12 November, 1558, for Baptisms, and 10 May, 1559, for Burials. From the commencement to 1705 the entries are in alphabetical order of Christian names, but no entries of Baptisms under “A” and “C” can be found, and the entries of Burials under “W” have become very faint. The only defect, however, peculiar to the period 1596—1644 is that from 1638 to its end the entries of Baptisms under "T" are mutilated. According to Harding's revised and enlarged edition (circa 1868) of Oliver's "Ecclesiastical Antiquities," two leaves of the earliest Register had then disappeared and a part of another leaf been cut out, but the present Rector has been unable to discover to what part of the book this refers.]

The Register was also kept from 1653, October, for Baptisms and Burials, and November, for Marriages (these including many from neighbouring parishes) to 1655 (November and August, respectively) and, again, from 1659, August, for Baptisms and Burials, and September, for Marriages, to 1659-60 (March and January, respectively). There are also fourteen odd entries between 1645-6 and 1652, and nineteen between 1655 and 1659.]

[The following note is in substitution for the note on p. 26:—The Parish Registers begin at 1581, and the first volume is a General Register to 1607, but some of the entries in every year of that period are defective. After 1607 the three classes of entries were kept separate, but while the pre-Commonwealth portions of the Registers of Baptisms and Burials extend to 30 August, 1640, the like portion of the Register of Marriages now ends with 1638. The Register of Baptisms 1608-40 is very imperfect, all the entries in 1611, 1613, 1614, 1618, 1626, 1631, and 1637 having perished, and, of the remaining years, the entries in 1616, 1622, 1625, 1630, 1636, and 1639 only are complete. During the Commonwealth period the Registers were kept from 1654 to 1658 for Marriages, and to 1659 for Baptisms and Burials, and there are also three entries of baptisms in 1649 and 1653 and two entries of burials in 1651 and 1652. ³ "9" in the Register.

⁴ The head of this Transcript has perished, but the parish has been identified by the signature of the Rector. The year, as the Thomas baptism shows, is posterior to 1636, and the comparison that has been made of the Burial entries with those in the Register, 1637-40, proves that it is not within that period, so that we have here the curious case of a "Transcript" the original of which was never a part of the Register; doubtless, a partial explanation is that the entries were primarily made on paper in a rough manner and copied into the Register afterwards, but why the Rector should have ceased to keep up the latter after 30 August, 1640, as he certainly seems to have done, blank spaces having, apparently, been left in it after the baptism and burial on that date, and yet have sent at least one, and possibly more, "Transcripts" to the Bishop's Registry will now, in all probability, never be known. According to Walker's "Sufferings of the Clergy," Mr. Shenton continued to hold the benefice until his death, and this did not take place until after the end of the Civil War.
